

This is a detailed street map of the Siedlce area in Poland. A yellow line highlights a specific route starting from the north, passing through the town center, and ending near the border with Warsaw. The map includes numerous street names, landmarks like the 'Stacja energetyczna' (power station) and 'Oczyszczalnia ścieków' (wastewater treatment plant), and a red line indicating the border with '7 WARSZAWA'.